My Election Intention Tune out the Fear – Tune in the Vision Rev. Cherie Larkin 100 Days of Mindful Intention July 28-Nov 4

My Election Intention | Spiritual Living Center of Atlanta \(slc-atlanta.org\)

Beginning on July 28 and continuing for 100 days, Unity of Auburn is joining with Spiritual Living Center in Atlanta, GA (and other Unity and New Thought churches in our world) in a special mindfulness practice to raise the vibration of love, wisdom, and unity for the 2024 US Presidential Election.

While it is important to be an informed voter, it is also vital to pay mindful attention to the vibration and frequency of our consciousness, knowing that the quality of our thinking directly impacts the quality of our experience.

You are invited to cultivate a high vibration mindfully-grounded spiritual practice for the next 100 days. Visit the website listed above and avail yourself to a bounty of opportunity.

There are daily voice messages from new thought leaders, zoom connections, and prayers, all to build divine outcomes for our national election.

There is a Spirit within our nation that has all the answers. We can trust it as we collectively proceed in an orderly, harmonious, loving way.

Affirm for yourself and for our nation: I see, feel, and understand all things in the light of Spirit. This light of perfect understanding illumines my mind and the hearts and minds of all in our United States of America.

Donna Vetromile

It's my turn to write a piece for the Unity newsletter. I had a wonderful find in my chaplain folder that I was excited to use for this. At the time, I couldn't read it all, but I set it aside knowing that I had a good source, {several typed pages} for a prayer chaplain article. It would be my turn in a few weeks. I seem to remember setting it on my computer table. But now the time has come to compose my contribution, and I can't find those typed pages anywhere.

I only remember the first phrase..."God, I am trusting...". The woman who wrote it said she used it as a prayer throughout her day. It is a simple way to express positive expectation, and to sort of refresh your prayer intention periodically.

It is a statement of faith. It can become a practice. It can help a person touch base with spirit throughout the day.. It feels to me like a lovely leaning into God. As I am watering my plants, I am grateful, & in awe of the spirit of life, and my part in helping it along. I am trusting that all will proceed as it should. I am also trusting that all will be well even if it is not as I anticipated. We have been told by Jesus to ask, thanking in advance as if our requests were already fulfilled.

I have found that this is a powerful way to participate in prayer. It really makes me feel like I am co-creating with God. When I express "God, I am trusting..." what seems to me to tag along unspoken is "that what is needed will be provided", and the details will be left up to God. I love the phrase "this or something better" for the request type prayer...but I think that is another whole article topic.

I trust that you are finding sweet ways to enjoy yourself as summer slides into early fall, and many of the days seem delightfully cooler...

Make a Joyful Noise!

Is that the sound of laughter and applause I hear? Yes it is! It’s ringing out in appreciation for our Special Events Team who bring liveliness and fun to our ministry. Charles Fillmore reminds us, “In Spirit, love is the pure essence of Being that binds together the whole human family.” We appreciate and love our fabulous team of Event Team volunteers who serve to bind us together in love and who make all our events creative, fun, and exciting. Thank you!
